WORKING TOGETHER

(CLICK HERE) for audio-visual presentation of this information)

We hope you have been learning valuable information through our weekly episodes of voter education. Fear not, there is much more to come before November 5.

This week, however, we are going to take a quick look back and remind you of a very important message from a few weeks ago.

If you have been reading our previous Voter Education missives, you will remember "The Power of ONE". Now is when we ask that you to embrace that power and take advantage of your opportunity to make a difference.

While exploring some very important information for voters to know in order to protect their own votes, we have continually repeated the "See Something, Say Something" mantra, the "Keep the Republic" mainstay of citizen oversight.

Now the challenge-our challenge-your challenge:

EIPCa Election Observations Volunteer training begins next week throughout the state. You can access training schedules in your area by visiting www.eip-ca.com. About EIPCa Where We Are. Find your county and click on it. Find a training that fits your schedule, and RSVP. That is your mission. Expect updates to the calendars every day for the next two to three weeks, so continue to check back often.

If you see no training in your area, leave us a message and we will contact you and do our best to make something possible.

There IS more.

We have also spent many words discussing mail ballots, and the fact that 50%+ of voters will regrettably elect to cast their votes that way. If we are to trust the election results, there must be citizen oversight of the processing of those ballots.

Together we can do that too.

We must have volunteers to visit the county Registrars of Voters during the 60-day period of ballot processing (October 8 - December 5) and take turns observing signature matching, ballot remaking and other processing activities to defend clean results. As with all election observation, citizens are entitled to access, trained or not. But EIPCa will show you what to look for, and give you recourse to action when needed.

For ballot processing training, you need only leave us a message at www.eip-ca.com and we will give you access to a one-hour, online course that will give you all you need. Then during the 60-day window, you will observe as your time allows and stay in touch with your EIPCa team.

YOUR MISSION, SHOULD YOU CHOOSE TO ACCEPT IT, is clear. Sign up, attend training, and become part of the citizen movement to keep our elections FAIR and HONEST.

ONLY YOU can prevent the successful intrusion of CORRUPTION and FRAUD in California elections. For the health and future of our Republic, nothing is more important than that.

You have your mission. Ready, set. GO!!
