EVERY LAWFULLY CAST VOTE ACCURATELY COUNTED

Disclaimer:

Recently, the issue of ballot harvesting has come up in the news. The current efforts to convince people that ballot harvesting has somehow become a good investment of time and energy in the quest to ensure that two political parties are on an even playing field will prove a grave disappointment.

EIPCa has decided to post this article from The Federalist with the hope that readers will read and consider these points of view regarding the wisdom and integrity of certain voting methodologies.

Because EIPCa is a nonpartisan non-profit organization, we cannot endorse the partisan elements of the article.

Republicans Can't Beat Democrats' Election-Industrial Complex By Adopting Its Strategies

By: Joseph Arlinghaus and William Doyle, Ph.D. published March 16, 2023

The sudden rise of well-funded election activist nonprofits represents a paradigm shift away from persuading and motivating voters, and toward manipulating the election process to benefit Democrats.

Over the last several months, a growing number of Republicans, including Donald Trump himself, seem to be having a change of heart about universal mail-in voting and ballot harvesting.

While few Republicans are ready to completely abandon policies that support election integrity and transparency, more and more seem willing to follow the old adage “if you can’t beat ’em, join ’em,” and suggest that Republicans become significantly more reliant on universal mail-in voting and ballot harvesting to win elections. There is no worse idea in politics today. [\[...read more: link to complete article in the Federalist\]](#)

"THESE are the times that try men's souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country; but he that stands by it now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman.

Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph...."

The fight for election integrity around the Republic...

Note: EIPCa monitors the efforts to ensure fair, honest, and transparent elections around the Republic. It is apparent that various efforts are in alignment with State laws and the US Constitution, and others are in alignment primarily with partisan objectives. Featuring a particular news story does not indicate support of, nor opposition to partisan-originated or politically-motivated articles.
