COMPLAINT: CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF MOTOR VEHICLES, FAILURE TO MAINTAIN ACCURATE VOTER ROLLS

Dear Attorney General Sessions, Secretary Nielsen, and Mr. Gore:

I am writing to you to inform you of a major error in California's new automatic voter registration process recently discovered, affecting tens of thousands of registrants. This error further discredits a voter registration system that is inherently prone to ineligible voter registration and requires your offices to take corrective action.

On April 1, 2018, California implemented automatic voter registration for individuals who renew or apply for driver's licenses. Individuals who register to vote at California Department of Motor Vehicle (DMV) offices began to have their registrations electronically transmitted to the California Secretary of State. Last week, the DMV admitted that, soon after the automatic registration program began, thousands of individuals who registered to vote at Headquarters: 3100 Broadway • Suite 1210 • Kansas City, Missouri 64111 • (816) 931-5559 • FAX (816) 931-1115 Virginia Office: 19415 Deerfield Avenue • Suite 312 • Leesburg, Virginia 20176 • (703) 554-6100 • FAX (703) 554-6119 DMV locations failed to complete the necessary affidavit attesting to eligibility. This incident, along with evidence presented below, shows that the California DMVs' new registration process will result in ineligible individuals, including noncitizens, completing and filing voter registration applications.

In February of 2018, Landmark Legal Foundation (Landmark) submitted to your offices an extensive complaint documenting California's failure to maintain accurate and up to date voter rolls. In the February complaint, Landmark documented how officials fail to ensure ineligible noncitizens are kept off the voter rolls. This complaint supplements the evidence previously presented.

California's new DMV registration scheme failed to ensure registrants attest to their eligibility.

California law specifies that an individual "may prove that he or she is a citizen by his or her certification under penalty of perjury on the affidavit of registration." Such a certification is sufficient evidence of citizenship for voting. The new DMV registration process automatically places individuals on voter rolls when those individuals obtain or renew their driver's license. The only method to establish citizenship during the DMV registration process is by the registrant's own certification- no other documents like birth certificates or passports are required. The DMV, however, does not ensure only eligible voters register at DMV locations before they are transmitted to the Secretary of State.

The recent incident is illustrative. In a letter to Secretary of State Alex Padilla, the DMV states that an audit of voter registrations transmitted to Secretary Padilla's office revealed that approximately 23,000 individuals "did not complete an affidavit of registration to vote." This means that at least 23,000 individuals completed a voter registration without attesting to their status as citizens of the United States, their proper age, and that they had not been convicted of a felony. California has a very high noncitizen population. The DMV's malfeasance means that thousands of ineligible individuals could reside on the voter rolls. It will also make future prosecutions for voter fraud more difficult. The affidavit conveys that the registrant is certifying the information he or she has provided is accurate and true and acknowledges that lying will expose the individual to criminal charges.

This evidence alone suggests that California has failed to institute the necessary controls to ensure that it complies with the federal obligation to ensure that its voter rolls are accurate and up-to-date. Yet California's voter registration system has other serious problems.

California's new DMV registration scheme contains loopholes that permit ineligible noncitizens to complete voter registration applications.

⁵ Exhibit 2, Grace Wyler, "More undocumented immigrants live in Southern California than anywhere else in U.S." Orange County Register, Aug. 28, 2017.

California's own documents and training materials establish that it has failed to take necessary precautions and institute effective protocols to ensure noncitizens are prevented from registering to vote while renewing or applying for driver's licenses. Under the new registration scheme, DMV directs its officials to permit ineligible noncitizens to complete and file voter registration applications – even when those officials have actual knowledge of ineligibility. If an individual conveys that he or she is not a citizen but insists on completing a voter registration application, DMV officials must allow the noncitizen to complete the registration. DMV then appears to take no action to purge the individual from the voting rolls. Nor does the DMV communicate to either the Secretary of State or the county registrars that an ineligible individual has completed a registration.

Training materials distributed by the California DMV specifically direct employees to allow noncitizens to complete voter registration applications when those noncitizens have suggested they wish to register to vote. California DMV memo "DL 2016-06" discusses "TouchScreen Terminal Voter Registration" at DMV locations. Touch screen terminal registration allows registrants to complete voter applications by electronic touch screen. The completed registrations, in turn, are submitted to county registrars who place names on the voter rolls. The DL 2016-06 memo outlines new process and procedures DMV officials are to follow when implementing the touch screen registration technology. Among other things, this memo outlines new voter registration procedures to be followed by individuals who apply for or renew their driver's licenses. Rather than completing the traditional paper voter registration application, the new procedures specify that applicants can either update their voter registration or register by a touch screen terminal. When applicants have revealed they are not citizens or eligible to vote, but those noncitizens have revealed they wish to register. In these situations, the DMV directs its employees to use the following script:

In reviewing your application, I see that you have completed the Voter Registration section by marking that you wish to register to vote. As U.S. citizenship is a requirement to vote, would you like to review this section again?⁷

The DMV then directs employees:

If the applicant chooses to continue with voter registration, do not deny the applicant the opportunity to register to vote. (Emphasis added.)⁸

As stated above, California law requires only an affirmation of citizenship for purposes of determining voter eligibility. Individuals can therefore register to vote provided they are willing to affirm their citizenship status – California requires no actual documentation. This system is inherently susceptible to fraud. The DMV exacerbates this vulnerability by directing employees to ignore times when an individual has revealed he/she is ineligible and permitting those individuals to register.

⁷ Exhibit 3 at p. 4.

⁸ Exhibit 3 at p. 4.

⁹ Cal. Elec Code § 2112.

Ineligible voter registration violates both California and federal law.

Noncitizen voter registration has multiple harmful legal consequences. First, noncitizens may unwittingly jeopardize their residency status and face deportation and criminal prosecution should they inadvertently vote. Second, noncitizens appearing on voter rolls undermine the integrity of the voting process. Legitimate votes are illegally diluted when ineligible voters cast ballots. Third, failing to institute reasonable procedures to prevent noncitizens from registering violates the National Voter Registration Act's (NVRA) requirements that a state maintain accurate and up to date voter rolls. 10

Voter eligibility under federal law requires U.S. citizenship. 11 Both the California Constitution and California Elections Code require U.S. citizenship to be eligible to vote. ¹² The DMV potentially violates these laws when it uses inadequate practices and procedures to screen ineligible individuals who complete and file voter registration applications. DMV officials are prohibited, even when an individual has revealed he/she is not a citizen, from taking steps to prevent noncitizens from completing voter registration applications. Once completed, these registrations are transmitted electronically to the Secretary of State who, in turn, forwards registrations to county registrars.

States are obligated under the NVRA to "conduct a general program that makes a reasonable effort to remove the names of ineligible voters from the official lists of eligible voters." While California DMV uses some protocols to screen noncitizens out of the registration process, a glaring loophole exists through which any noncitizen can register to vote. These "protocols" are a toothless sham. California's "reasonable efforts" to ensure noncitizens who obtain or renew their driver's licenses are not placed on the voter rolls fail in that those efforts fails to prevent determined or even ignorant noncitizens from registering. Once placed on the voter rolls, California compounds its failures by doing nothing to identify and remove noncitizens.

Individuals who register also retain the option of voting by mail. ¹⁴ Vote by mail systems are particularly vulnerable to fraud. Ballots are mailed to an address on record and no controls exist to ensure the identified individual casts his/her ballot. Any individual with access to the ballots can, fraudulently, cast a vote in another person's name. The existence of vote by mail in California requires extra diligence at all levels of voter registration. Should ineligible individuals enter into the system few protocols exist to prevent these individuals from casting illegal votes. A vulnerable registration system thus jeopardizes the entire election system and exposes California to large-scale voter fraud.

¹⁴ Exhibit 3 at p. 7.

According to California, eligibility should not be a consideration when determining whether an individual should have the "opportunity" to register. This lax process endangers noncitizens who may not appreciate the consequences that arise if they engage in voter activity. These consequences include deportation and federal criminal conviction. In addition to compromising the integrity of the voter rolls (and, by extension, undermining the voting process) California endangers noncitizens by subjecting these individuals to deportation and criminal prosecution.

California is failing – by design and by incompetence – to use effective protocols to ensure noncitizens that either renew or apply for driver's licenses are prevented from completing voter registration applications. These applications are sent to relevant registrars, who in turn, place these individuals on voter rolls. California fails in its duty to ensure noncitizens are kept off the voter rolls even when officials have actual knowledge of ineligibility – it directs employees at DMV offices to process voter registrations from individuals who acknowledge they are not citizens of the United States. Allowing known ineligible voter registrations undermines the accuracy of the voter rolls because these individuals are not eligible to vote. By voting, noncitizens dilute the legitimate vote of eligible citizens. Such actions undermine the integrity of elections.

Landmark Legal Foundation Requests that your offices investigate California's failure to take reasonable steps to ensure ineligible individuals, including noncitizens who register to vote while applying for or renewing their driver's licenses, are adequately screened and removed before placement on voter rolls. If appropriate, your offices should seek a judicial order under 52 U.S.C. § 20510(a) directing the California Secretary of State or the California DMV to: (1) take necessary steps to ensure all individuals who register to vote through DMV processes attest to their eligibility to vote; and (2) close loopholes identified in this complaint that allow noncitizens to complete voter registration applications.

Thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Honorable Alex Padilla Secretary of State 1500 11th Street Sacramento, CA 95814

Dear Secretary of State Padilla:

The Department of Motor Vehicles and Department of Technology recently discovered an administrative processing error in the DMV system that impacted some California Motor Voter data transmitted to the California Secretary of State's office. The Departments completed a comprehensive review in order to prevent a reoccurrence of this error, and have implemented new and additional safeguards in the Motor Voter registration system, including software updates and staff training.

Following an extensive audit of the 1.4 million customer records that were transmitted to the Secretary of State's office between April 23 and August 5, 2018, we have determined approximately 23,000 customers may have been affected by this error. These errors occurred through no fault of the customer and were caused by DMV technicians who had more than one customer record open on their computer screens at the same time and those records were inadvertently merged. As a result, inaccurate customer information – largely affecting voter preferences such as, vote-by-mail options, language and political party selections – was transmitted to the Secretary of State. Some of those 23,000 customers did not complete an affidavit of registration to vote and their records were sent erroneously to the Secretary of State. None of the impacted customers are undocumented immigrants who received a driver license under AB 60.

We are committed to working collaboratively with your office to implement a quick and efficient resolution for impacted customers. Accordingly, during the next week, state officials will send notification to customers whose records contained errors so they can verify and correct that information well before the October 22, 2018 voter registration deadline for the upcoming General Election.

We will provide any additional information and assistance needed.

Sincerely,

LOCAL NEWS

More undocumented immigrants live in Southern California than anywhere else in U.S.

By GRACE WYLER | gwyler@scng.com | Orange County Register
PUBLISHED: February 9, 2017 at 3:14 pm | UPDATED: August 28, 2017 at 5:48 am

About 6 in 10 undocumented immigrants in the United States live in one of 20 metro areas, with three regions in Southern California combining to make up the largest cluster of people living in the country illegally, according to a new study by the Pew Research Center.

The study also shows that a big swath of the nation's undocumented population lives in communities that voted against President Donald Trump in the past election. That could minimize the political fallout for the White House as it moves to implement some of the president's hard-line immigration agenda.

Pew, which has tracked the undocumented population for several years, pegs the total number of undocumented immigrants at about 11.1 million nationwide.

In Southern California, about 1.4 million undocumented immigrants live between the southern Ventura County border and the U.S.-Mexico border — the biggest concentration of undocumented people in the country.

The data underscore the dramatic impact that Trump's planned crackdown on illegal immigration could have across the region, and in cities nationwide.

Under the administration's new immigration enforcement policies — outlined in an executive order signed during Trump's first week in office — the majority of the country's undocumented immigrants could be priorities for deportation. The president has repeatedly said that the order gives Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents authority to detain virtually anyone who has crossed the border illegally, or who has used false documents to apply for a job or public benefits.

"The numbers show that if President Trump wants mass deportations, the Department of Homeland Security will know where to do them," said Louis DeSipio, a political science professor at UC Irvine.

That, in turn, could change everything in Southern California from day-to-day economics to culture.

"The economic and community impact of widespread deportations would be just enormous," DeSipio said.

"Families would be broken up, employers would see huge losses in the workforce. It would just disrupt our lives in unimaginable ways."

On Thursday, immigrant rights groups reported that about 100 people had been detained by immigration officials in the Los Angeles area. A day earlier, protests erupted after an Arizona woman who had spent two decades in the United States was deported to Mexico after reporting to immigration officials, something she'd done regularly in recent years without incident.

An ICE spokesperson in Los Angeles said that any raids the agency conducts are part of its "routine immigration enforcement."

The Pew analysis, its first to estimate undocumented populations at the local level, shows that undocumented immigrants are significantly more concentrated than the general U.S. population, and they also tend to live near immigrants who are in the U.S. legally.

In 2014, 61 percent of undocumented immigrants lived in just 20 metro areas, compared with just 36 percent of the total U.S. population that lived in the same regions. About 65 percent of legal immigrants lived in those areas. Overall, undocumented immigrants make up about 3.5 percent of the nation's population.

The survey also shows the political bent of cities with many undocumented residents.

Of the 20 metro areas where undocumented immigrants are concentrated, 17 voted overwhelmingly for Hillary Clinton. In many of the areas, including Los Angeles, New York and Chicago, local officials have taken steps to protect undocumented immigrants from deportation, in the face of Trump's threats to cut funding for cities that don't cooperate with ICE.

While undocumented immigrants are concentrated in metro areas, they often don't live in major city centers, said Jeffrey Passel, a senior demographer with the Pew Research Center who co-authored the report. In Southern California, for example, about two-thirds of the 1 million undocumented immigrants living in the Los Angeles-Orange County metro area live outside of Los Angeles.

"In most places, a minority of undocumented immigrants live in the major cities," Passel said.

"The bigger concentrations are in the suburbs, and the broader metro areas."

The findings suggest that the financial impact of Trump's deportation policies would be felt widely across Southern California. Statewide, undocumented immigrants contributed roughly $181 billion to California's gross domestic product last year, according to a recent report from the California Immigrant Policy Center.

In Los Angeles County, home to the largest concentration of immigrants in the state, the foreign-born population contributed $232.9 billion, or 35.7 percent, of the total GDP in 2014, according to a report released by L.A. city officials this week.

"Immigration begets immigration," said UC Riverside political scientist Francisco Pedraza.

"This is a corroboration of the argument that where you have lots of immigrants, undocumented or otherwise, it's a sign of strong economic health."

Issue Date: April 29, 2016

New Policy

The Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) is implementing enhancements to the voter registration process, which are anticipated to be completed by July 2017. This memo addresses the first enhancement, specific to the replacement of the paper California Voter Registration Application form attached to the Driver License or Identification Card Application (DL 44) and Commercial Driver License Application (DL 44C) with an electronic process in the field offices. With this enhancement, interested eligible applicants will complete their voter registration through an automated system on a TouchScreen Terminal (TST), instead of completing the California Voter Registration Application form. All information provided through this new process will be sent electronically to the California Secretary of State (SOS).

Future enhancements pertain to DMV's efforts to implement Assembly Bill (AB) 1461. AB 1461 requires DMV to register all eligible applicants to vote, unless they specifically decline to register. AB 1461 is expected to be implemented by July 2017. Additional memos will be distributed as new voter registration policies and procedures are developed.

DL 44/44C forms have been revised and procedures developed to process driver license and identification (DL/ID) card applications that include the revised Voter Registration section. The new and revised information in this memo includes:

- DL 44/44C (Rev. 3/2016) Form Changes.
 - Voter Registration-Section 6 (DL 44) and Section 8 (DL 44C).
 - -DL 44 in additional languages.
 - Distribution.
- New Voter Registration Procedures.
 - -Citizenship and Eligibility.
- · New Field Office Visit Checklist.
- Renewal by Mail (RBM) Notice Procedures.
- TST Voter Registration Application Procedures.
- TST Voter Registration Application Administrative Module.
 - -Technician Module.
 - -Supervisor Module.
- Voter Registration Exception Process.

DL 44/44C (Rev. 3/2016) Form Changes

Several changes have been made to the DL 44/DL 44C form to assist with voter registration. The DL 44 will be available in four additional languages. The Voter Registration sections of the DL 44/44C forms have been changed to add additional questions. Additional content has been incorporated into the Information and Certifications page for Voter Registration (see Attachments A and B).

- Voter Registration-Section 6 (DL 44) and Section 8 (DL 44C):
 - -Voter Registration questions have been changed to assist applicants.
 - Are you a U.S. citizen?-No keying required.
 - ° Are you eligible to vote?-No keying required.

DL 44/44C (Rev. 3/2016) Form Changes, continued

- A qualification statement has been added to verify the applicant's eligibility to register to vote.
- A notification for applicants who are in a confidential address program or Safe at Home program has been included.
- A disclosure of applicant information being shared when registering to vote through DMV has also been added.

NOTE: Do not accept a DL 44/44C with errors or corrections. A new DL 44/44C is required.

- The California Voter Registration Application form will no longer be attached to the DL 44/44C.

Distribution

Each field office will receive a five-month supply of the DL 44/44C forms listed below in a blanket distribution. English and Spanish come in packages of forms. All other languages come in packages of forms.

Note: There is a limited supply of DL 44s in the new languages (Japanese, Hindi, Thai, and Khmer). Field Operation Division's headquarters staff is working with field offices to ensure each office has a supply of DL 44s in all languages prior to implementing the TST Voter Registration Application process. Once a better estimate of the demand for the DL 44s in the four new languages is established, those languages will be added to a blanket distribution.

Distribution, continued

- Additional DL 44/44Cs may be ordered from the warehouse following normal supply procedures.
- Upon implementation of the Voter Registration Application process at the TST in your office, begin using the DL 44/44C (Rev. 3/2016). Recycle and replace all prior revisions.

NOTE: After implementation of the new TST Voter Registration Application process in your office, do not use any prior revision of the DL 44/44C.

New Voter Registration Procedures

New voter registration procedures have been created to process applicants completing a DL/ID transaction who wish to register or update voter information. Instead of turning in a paper California Voter Registration Application form as part of their transaction, applicants will have the opportunity to use the TST to provide their voter registration information.

California Voter Registration Application forms will still be available in field offices for applicants who wish to register to vote but do not need to complete a DL/ID card transaction.

Citizenship and Eligibility

Citizenship is a requirement to vote. Some birthdate/legal presence (BD/LP) documents indicate if a person is a citizen of the United States (U.S.) (i.e., a U.S. birth certificate). Before entering information provided in the Voter Registration section of the DL 44/44C, please verify the following:

New Voter Registration Procedures, continued

- If an applicant presents a BD/LP document that does not confirm citizenship, but marked the DL 44/44C that he/she would like to register to vote, use the following script:
 - —"In reviewing your application, I see that you have completed the Voter Registration section by marking that you wish to register to vote. As U.S. citizenship is a requirement to vote, would you like to review this section again?"
 - If the applicant chooses to continue with voter registration, do not deny the applicant the opportunity to register to vote.
- If an applicant has additional questions about voting and/or voter eligibility, refer him/her to the local county elections office.
- Applicants may only complete the Voter Registration Application at the TST for the following type transaction codes (TTCs):

NOTE: TTC does not allow the applicant to complete his/her Voter Registration Application at the TST. TTCs will have the Voter Registration section grayed out. Provide the paper version (affidavit) of the California Voter Registration Application form to these applicants.

 the Voter Registration Application. No additional voter registration is necessary.

NOTE: If or was keyed in the VOTER REGISTRATION field in the application, let the applicant know that his/her demographic information (name, DL/ID number, address, and date of birth) will be sent to SOS whether or not the Voter Registration Application is completed at the TST.

New Field Office Visit Checklist

A new checklist has been created to assist DL/ID applicants in completing their field office visit. The checklist will be available in the same languages as the DL 44: English, Spanish, Chinese, Korean, Vietnamese, Tagalog, Japanese, Hindi, Thai, and Khmer.

When completing a DL/ID application, follow the steps below:

1. Complete the Field Office Visit Checklist (DL 41) form in the appropriate language (based on the DL 44/44C language), and provide to the applicant (see Attachment C).

Renewal by Mail (RBM) Notice Procedures

If the applicant provides an RBM notice and indicates his/her interest in registering or updating voter registration information:

- Require completion of the Voter Registration and Certification sections of the DL 44 (Sections 6 and 8) or 44C (Section 8 and 9) only. Do not ask the applicant to fill out a California Voter Registration Application form.
- Process the application following existing renewal procedures and voter registration procedures in this memo.
- and write the number in the box.
- the DL 44/44C to the RBM notice and place in the

TST Voter Registration Application Procedures

The Voter Registration Application will be available for applicants on the existing TST.

- Applicants will be required to log in using the same method as the TST through fingerprint capture. The applicant will have three attempts to log in through the fingerprint capture before attempting a Secondary Authentication process.
- During the Secondary Authentication process, the applicant will be prompted to enter his/her number, date of birth, and first three letters of his/her last name. The applicant will have three attempts to log in through the Secondary Authentication process.

NOTE: As with Automated Knowledge Testing (AKT), after three failed attempts with the Secondary Authentication process, the applicant will be prompted to see a technician for assistance. Unlike the AKT, there is no lock out. The technician will be required to assist applicants in additional log in attempts at the TST.

- If an applicant requires a knowledge test and is completing the voter registration, the TST will display the Voter Registration Application first.

Background

The National Voter Registration Act (NVRA) of 1993 requires DMV to provide voter registration services to individuals who apply for, renew, or change an address with respect to a DL/ID card. Previously, the California Voter Registration Application form was attached to the DL 44/DL 44C. This will now be an automated process.
